A Message from the Senior Class President

To The Class of 2013:

Many fairy tales begin with the age old cliché "Once upon a time", a sentiment which has been echoed for centuries beginning many tales of adventure, loss, and of course joy. Within the pages of this yearbook, you will find the recreation of your very own fairy tale. You will remember the heroes you had in friends, teachers, and coaches, all of which have given you the power to fight the fierce dragons that many times seemed like an impossible task. However, each one of you has declared a personal victory, each one of you has defeated more than one dragon, and each one of you has gained experience and knowledge to succeed. As you bring these pictures and words to life remember the lessons and remember the heroes.

This is not the end of our story. We will forever be the class of 2013 and the strength that we have gained from each other will forever be an innate part of our characters. This journey brought all of us together to one place where we became more than peers and more than acquaintances, together we became graduates. The bright white pages of this book may fade, but the meaning and memories that are ascribed to them will forever remain a vibrant burst of hope and happiness. Graduating opens another chapter and it is up to us to keep the stories of the past close because they will shape our future. Go confidently in the direction of your dreams knowing that you have heroes to support you and that you are quite possibly the hero to someone else.

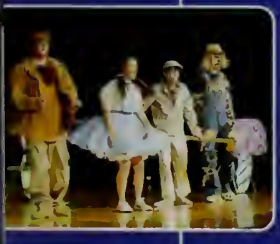
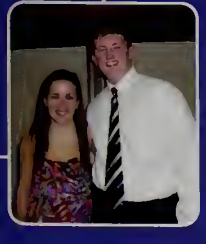
A group of friends after the BIG Picture

Since before freshman year, the Senior class has been attending dances and events sponsored by the School. For many of the Seniors, beginning with the 8th Grade Dance and continuing through Senior prom & graduation, these dances and events provide time for meeting new people and growing closer as a class.





Remember When

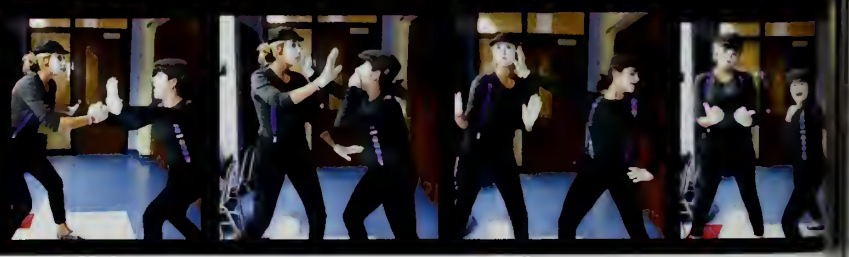
Above, students in Mrs. Kames' class sported a variety of costumes this Halloween. Below Left Mr. Duseau dresses up as a skeleton in his math class.



Halloween is the one day of the year in which students have the opportunity to be whatever they desire without being judged by others. Individuals, as well as groups and teams dress up in a variety of costumes that can say a lot about who they are or who they aren't. On Halloween, individuality and creativity are praised by students and teachers alike.

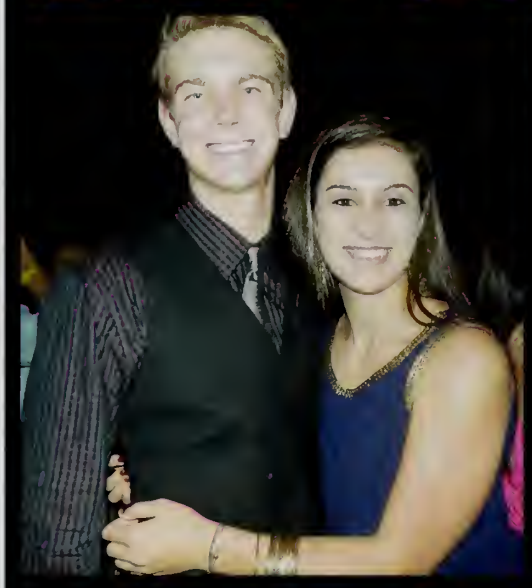
Homecoming Dance



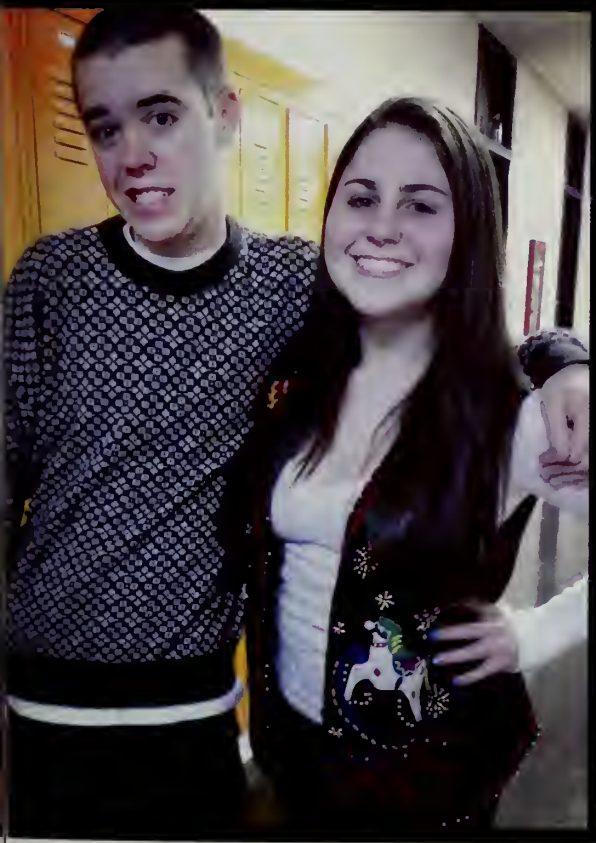
The Homecoming Dance is a great way for all the different WHS classes to get together and celebrate a new school year with dancing, hanging out with friends, watching football and making awesome memories.

Handball

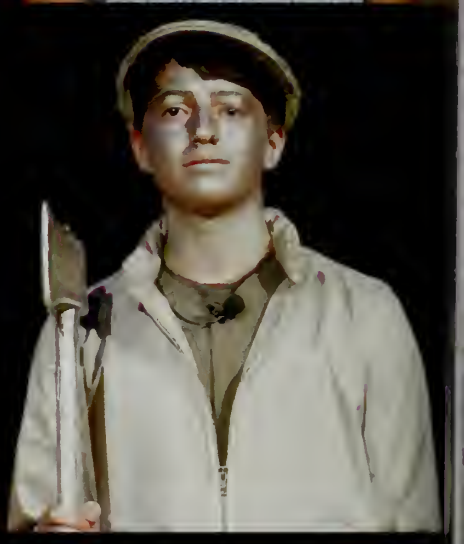
Team Handball is a fun in-school event on the half day before Thanksgiving Break. It's a competitive game, especially against the seniors, but it's clean fun all the way.

Ugly Sweater

Ugly Sweater Contest takes place on the day before Holiday Break. It's an event that encourages students to dress in their "ugliest" holiday sweaters to bring the holiday season to WHS. There are usually prizes given for the best sweater - aka: the ugliest!



Senior Play



The Wiz

"The Wiz" is a fun, modern spin on the classic film, The Wizard of Oz. This production keeps the same main characters: Dorothy, the Scarecrow, the Tin Man, the Cowardly Lion, the Wizard, and the good & evil witches. Their journey to Oz is full of interesting events and great songs.

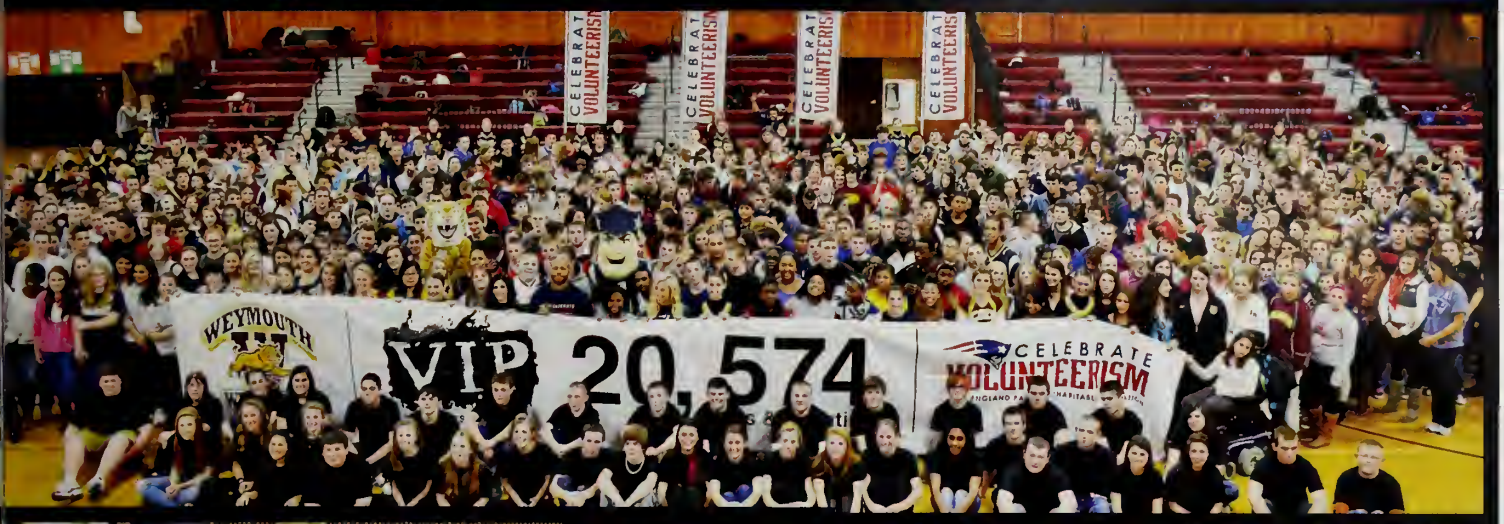
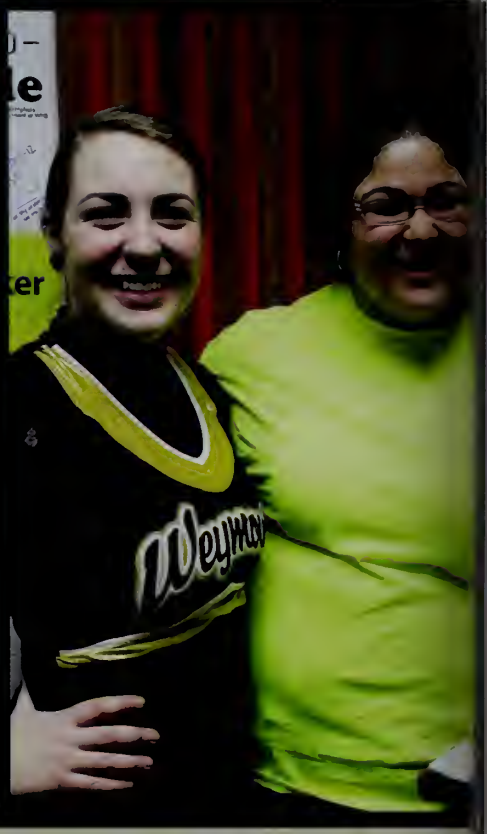
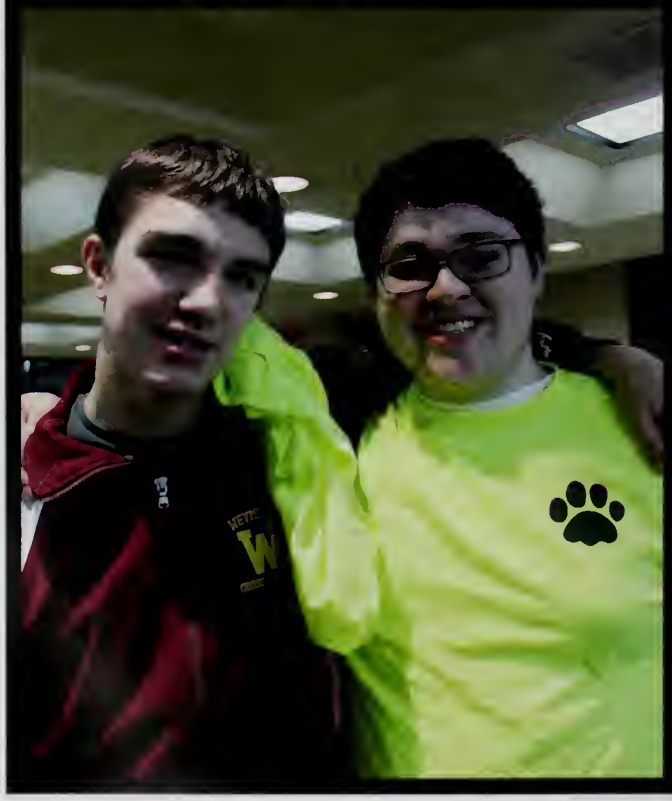
The VIP pep rally was an event in which every student who completed 20 or more hours of community service was invited to attend. There was a surprise guest, Kevin Faulk, a former New England Patriot and students played games. Prizes were awarded by Faulk and the mascot, Pat the Patriot!



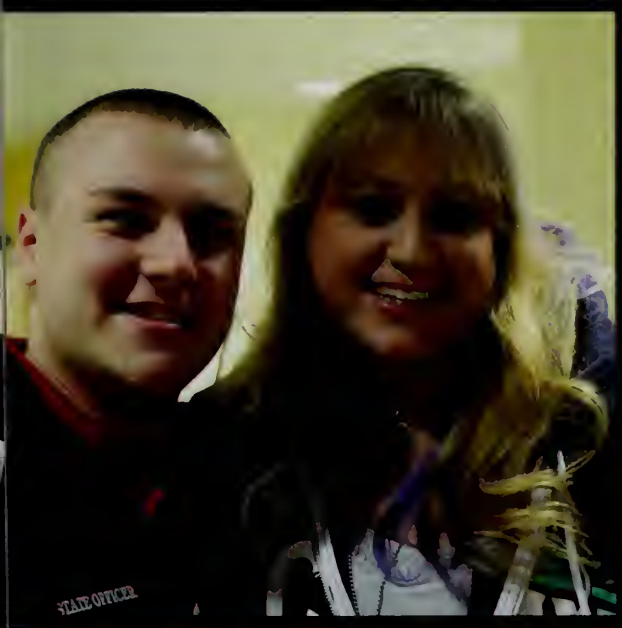
Walk with a Wildcat





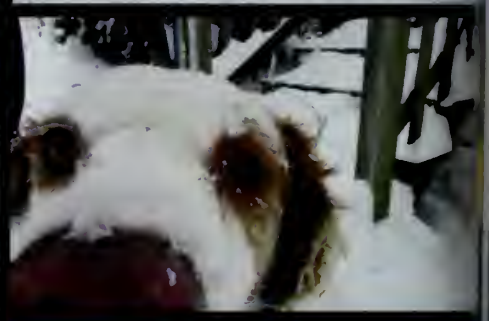
Before the festivities begin, potential students and their parents can stop by the many tables to learn about club opportunities at the high school. Above are students from SADD.

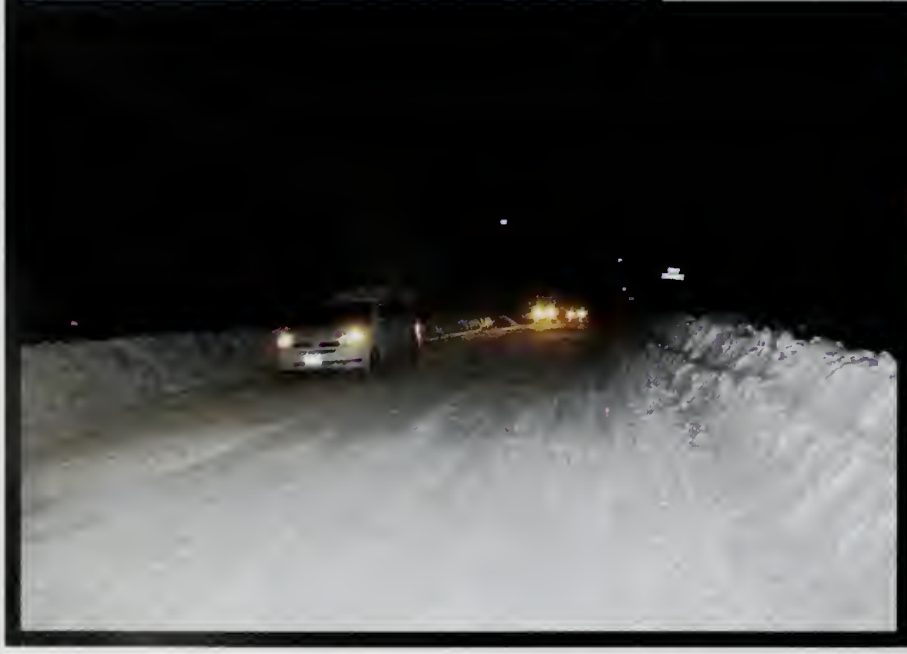
Walk with a Wildcat is an annual event that provides incoming freshmen with information about the high school. It is an evening of fun & excitement. After a presentation in the school auditorium, current WHS students volunteer to give the newcomers a tour of the school. The potential freshmen meet with faculty and administrators to make the transition into high school a little easier.



Spirit Week

The Blizzard of 2013 cut Spirit Week short this year by a few days. No school on 2.8.13, 2.11.13, a 2 hour delay on 2.12.13, plus a half day on 2.13.13 makes for a very easy week before February Break!





Spirit Week gives students a chance to show their school spirit. Each day of the week there is a specific theme. This year Tuesday was dress to impress, Wednesday was favorite sports day, Thursday was decade day, and Friday was class color day. Weymouth High School is a very fun and colorful place during this week.

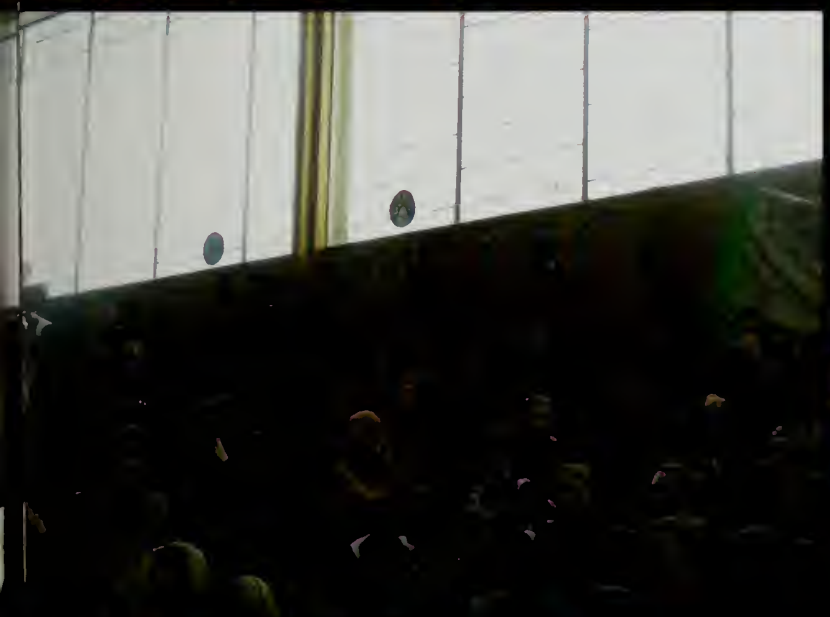
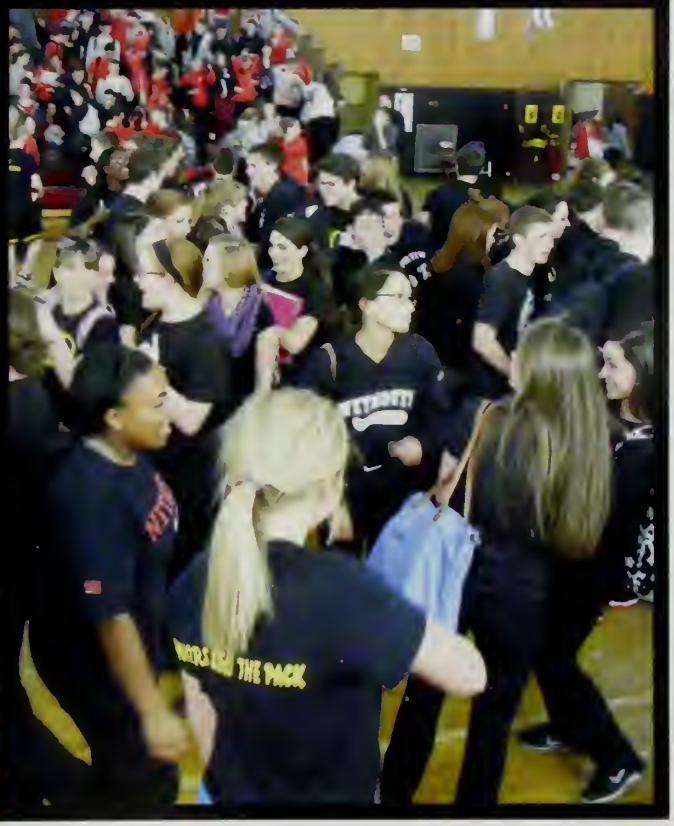
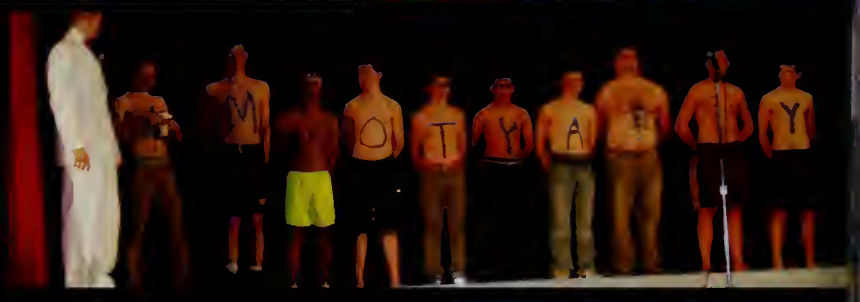
Battle of the Classes is an event in which Seniors, Juniors, Sophomores, and Freshmen create teams to compete against each other to prove who is the best class at Weymouth High School. Each class wears a different color to show unity and all students are encouraged to attend to cheer on their class.

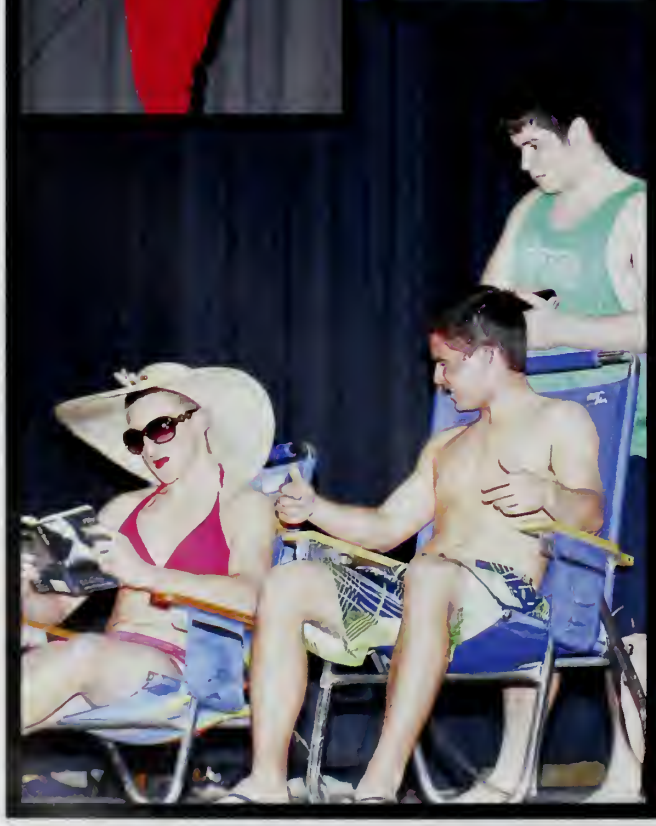
This years winner: The Class of 2013!!





Mr. WHS





WHS seniors' most talented guys take the stage in hopes of outwitting and outwearing each other to be crowned MR. WHS. This event is not only entertaining, it also benefits its participants. The contestants of Mr. WHS fund-raise in order to provide a scholarship for both the first and second runner ups, as well as the winner. This years winner: Tim Dennehey.

messages from the staff...for the class of 2013

Read books, care about things, get excited. Try not to be too down on yourself. Enjoy the ever present game of knowing. It takes courage to grow up and become who you really are.
- Mr. Powers Guidance Counselor

Success requires sacrifice, committment and diligence. Take on those three attributes wherever you go and may your wishes and dreams become reality.
- Mr. Cole History Teacher

The key to success and happiness is to always give more than you take.
- Mr. Xirau Math Teacher

Whenever we were leaving the house for anything, my mom would always tell my sister and I, "Be Good." I share that sentiment, Class of 2013, Be Good! But I add to it... don't just be good - DO good. Do good things in your communities, here in Weymouth, or maybe your new college town. Find a cause, adopt it, and DO good. Your world needs you!
- Ms. Brennan Guidance Counselor

In the words of Joan Baez, "You don't get to choose how you're going to die. Or when. You can only decide how you're going to live. Now."
- Ms. Borkowski CTE Instructor

Good Luck Class of 2013!
Be who you were meant to be...to quote Ralph Waldo Emerson, "To be yourself in a world that is constantly trying to make you something else is the greatest accomplishment."
- Ms. Bunker
Art + Design Instructor

n e words of Ralph Waldo Emerson, "Do not go wh re the path may lead; go instead where there is no path and leave a trail."
- M. Stefaney and Mr. Secor
Se or Class Advisors

Be true. Be true to yourself, and the rest with fall into place. Be brave. Have faith. Believe. Life isn't always fair. Just accept it. Be honest. Take responsibility for what you do, or don't do. Choose your words carefully and never be afraid to apologize or too stubborn to accept an apology. There will be plenty of times you will have to do both. Be kind. It all comes back to this: treat others as you would want to be treated. Remember, you can't change how people act, you can only change how you REact. You all are destined for greatness. I believe in you. We believe in you. Now it's time for you to believe in you too! Congratulations!
